

House Resolution No. 1770

Whereas, it is with great pride and sincere admiration that the members of the Missouri House of Representatives pause to recognize an extraordinary young Missouri citizen who has attained tremendous personal success through achievement in the Boy Scouts of America program; and

Whereas, Bradley A. Woodall of Troop 89 in Springfield, Missouri, will receive the prestigious Eagle Scout Award during a Court of Honor ceremony to be held April 28, 2003, at St. John's United Church of Christ in Springfield; and

Whereas, Bradley Woodall earned the praise and respect of many for the enthusiasm and initiative he displayed in regard to his Eagle Project which involved the construction of new storage racks for the acolyte robes at Christ Episcopal Church in Springfield; and

Whereas, during his twelve years in the Scouting program, Bradley Woodall earned an impressive twenty-one merit badges, received the Service to America Award, attained Brotherhood membership in the Order of the Arrow, and attended Camp Arrowhead and Wilson's Creek National Battlefield-National Battlefield Trail; and

Whereas, Bradley Woodall has readily prepared himself for the challenges of the outside world through his important terms of service to his Troop as Assistant Senior Patrol Leader, Chaplain's Aide, and Junior Assistant Scoutmaster; and

Whereas, Bradley Woodall is an exemplary student at his school where he excels in his studies, is courteous to his teachers and fellow classmates, and does his best to live each day by the high standards and ideals of Scouting; and

Whereas, Bradley Woodall has achieved all of this and more with the love, support, and encouragement he has continually received from his proud parents, Steve and Jana Woodall of Springfield:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-second General Assembly, unanimously join in extending our most hearty congratulations to Bradley Woodall at this proud moment of well-deserved distinction, and in wishing him only the very best as he continues to uphold the Scouting tradition with both honor and decorum; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Eagle Scout Bradley A. Woodall.
